

Marriage Contract

1. Jewish Divorce (Get)

In the event that the marriage is ended by civil divorce or separation, a Jewish divorce document (Get) will be obtained from the religious authority and the cost of same will be equally shared by both parties. (Approx. $800 as of this date)

2. Civil Divorce

In the absense of issue, civil divorce will be uncontested by either party. Neither will claim spousal support from the other. No division of property other than that which is mutually agreed as set forth hereunder will take place. Divorce costs will be shared equally by both parties.

3. Fiscal Assets upon Marriage

Assets upon marriage, i.e. bank accounts and other holdings, will not be merged. Each will keep sole ownership of his or her own accounts.

4. Movable Assets (furniture, housewares)

Upon dissolution of marriage will revert to the original owner. If there are items which are purchased during the course of the marriage jointly, they will be proportionately divided or one can recompense the other for his share.

5. Inheritance

On the death of either party, inheritance will be dictated by the will/testament of the deceased, in the absense of which no more than 50% of the assets of the decedant will devolve upon the other.
