Dear Rabbi Cohen,

I am writing in regard to the your outstanding debt to me in the amount of $5,000. Despite your promises to fulfill your obligation I have yet to receive any payment.

On June 19, 2001 we entered into a legally binding oral agreement. In exchange for my guaranteeing your van lease contract with GMAC. you agreed to fully indemnify me in the event of your non-fulfillment of the lease contract.

On June 1, 2005 after GMAC had repossessed the van and terminated your lease, I was informed by GMAC that I was obligated in the amount of $8,196.59 in the matter of your debt to them.

Subsequently I was contacted by GMAC and informed that legal action would be brought against me to collect on your debt to them. On Dec. 23, 2006, I made payment to GMAC in the amount that you and I agreed upon in our e-mail and verbal conversations which was $5,000 (approx. $3,000 less then they claimed against your lease default).

I am now seeking indemnification in full as per our previous arrangement. Naturally, I am seeking a swift and amicable resolution to this matter. However, in the event that a reply and full payment is not immediately forthcoming I will have no choice but to retain counsel and initiate a claim in the Ontario Superior Court of Justice.

I look forward to receiving your prompt response.

Very truly yours,
